Youth activities fair June 3 will offer information, fun and spaghetti dinner

Children and parents from throughout the Battle Ground area are welcome at the first Chief Umtuch Middle School Activities Fair, 5:30 to 8:30 p.m., Friday, June 3. The school is just a few blocks northwest of downtown Battle Ground at 700 N.W. Ninth St.

In a single place on a single evening, this will be an opportunity for youths and their parents to gather information about numerous groups and activities for children and teenagers in northeast Clark County. It's also a chance for parents to volunteer with these groups.

Among the organizations expected are Little League, youth football, youth soccer, youth wrestling, Royal Ridges Camp, Rock Solid Teen Center, Kids Club, martial arts, high school junior ROTC, Relay for Life, Battle Ground Community Education, Battle Ground Community Library and others.

In addition to the information booths, there will be a youth talent show and drama performance by Chief Umtuch students, spaghetti dinner ($3), activities such as face and rock painting, a raffle and silent auction for the Chief Umtuch PTO to raise money for the school.
