Hearing set on proposed minor changes in School Board members' districts

The Battle Ground School District on Monday will conduct a public hearing on proposed adjustments to boundaries of its five “director districts.”

These boundaries define the area within the overall school district in which each elected School Board member must reside. There is one elected Board member per director district. These boundaries are not related to school attendance areas and thus do not affect where students go to school.

The hearing will be at 5:30 p.m. Dec. 5 in Building C at the Lewisville campus, 406 NW Sixth Ave., Battle Ground. The Board is expected to take action on the proposal at its Dec. 12 meeting at 4:30 p.m. in the same place.

The redistricting of school director districts is required by law after every 10-year census. The purpose is to make each district roughly equivalent in population while keeping each as compact as possible. A version of the proposed new boundaries can be seen online via the school district Website, battlegroundps.org, and clicking “School Board” at right.
